TAG Priorities and Expectations

Air Force Core Values

Integrity First

The willingness to do what is right even when no one else is looking. It is the “moral compass“ the inner voice, the voice of self-control, the basis for the trust imperative in today’s Air Force.

Service Before Self

Enduring commitment and dedication of the individual Airman to the age-old military virtue of selfless dedication to duty at all times and in all circumstances.

Excellence in All We Do

Demands Airmen constantly strive to perform at their best, commitment to high standards and an understanding that each Airman has been entrusted with our nation’s security.

Army Core Values

Loyalty

Bear true faith and allegiance to the U.S. Constitution, the Army, your unit and other Soldiers.

Duty

Fulfill your obligations.

Respect

Treat people as they should be treated.

Selfless Service

Put the welfare of the Nation, the Army and your subordinates before your own.

Honor

Live up to Army values.

Integrity

Do what's right, legally and morally.

Personal Courage

Face fear, danger or adversity (physical or moral).

TAG Priorities and Expectations

Nevada National Guard Culture

The Nevada National Guard defines its principles of culture as an organization of trust in which a symbiotic relationship of mutualism exists between the Guard and its Soldiers and Airmen.

Mutualism is defined as a relationship in which both partners benefit.

The organization must trust its members, invest in them to grow as individuals, citizens, Soldiers and Airmen; in turn the Soldiers and Airmen must trust the organization and invest into its growth and sustainment.

Together the Soldiers and Airmen grow the Guard, while the Guard enables the growth of its Soldiers and Airmen that lead to successful careers.

The Five Dimensions of Personal Readiness

1. Physical—Maintain good physical health and fitness, create and maintain an environment to support healthy choices, and seek medical care when you need it.

2. Psychological — Directly address and overcome fears, maintain realistic optimism, practice self control.

3. Social — Cultivate strong relationships with family and friends, continue communication with your loved ones when faced with stressors in your life, engage in help-seeking behavior.

4. Spiritual — Use our values to guide you to do what is right. Volunteer and help others. Develop associations with others who share your world views, faith or religion.

5. Family Preparedness—Foster a way for your family to be part of the military community. Communicate regularly and schedule time to be with your family. Take proactive action to meet financial challenges and obligations.
